

On March 2, we have reached the third month of winter and we have another great workshop that could be helpful to anyone who enjoys social media, networking, motivation and learning new things. Three guest speakers are joining us at this next event.

Jane Evola, CEO of "JME Financial LLC," is going to talk about RETIREMENT PLANNING. How to create wealth with little or nothing out of their pocket, alternatives to the stock market, 401K's not being what their cracked up to be, having safety and guarantees.

Kurt A. David, an outstanding motivator, a pro athlete, best-selling author of his book "From Glory Days," TV host, counselor, and transition consultant to world class athletes will talk about FACE CHANGE & ADVERSITY HEAD ON. His presentation is appropriate for any organization or business experiencing transition, change, or adversity. He'll speak passionately about meeting change and adversity head-on. Sharing his personal experiences, including a pro basketball career cut devastatingly short due to injury. He'll educate on what to do next, and recognizes the need for grieving what's lost-but understands that it's more important to move forward to the next great adventure. Kurt is also a masterful storyteller who relates to his listeners with stories easily transforming to their lives, and offers unparalleled life lessons that are meaningful and long-lasting on overcoming failure and gaining success.

Sandra Agazzi Chimenti M.Ed, Owner of "The Spiritual Awakening Center" and "Creative Books & Music LLC" will talk on YOU ARE THE KEY TO YOUR SUCCESS. She will share her powerful "Awakening Process" from her inspirational book The Real Me: Awakening Your True Self. As an author, musician, and success coach, Sandra will guide you to create real success in her entertaining and interactive topic. She'll even teach you how to achieve any goal in business and in life.
